OTCO at Portland's Food & Climate Day

PDX Food & Climate Day was created by the city's Bureau of Planning and Sustainability to discuss ways that the current food systems contribute to climate change through carbon emissions. Oregon Tilth was invited to give input on organic agriculture's role in climate change remediation. Chris Schreiner, OTCO's executive director, along with Anne Lappe, keynote speaker at the event, were asked to sit on the discussion panel. Find out more...
