LEARN, GROW AND ENGAGE – TOPICS DISCUSSED AND DEMONSTRATED DURING YOUR WEEKLY COMMITMENTS MAY INCLUDE THE FOLLOWING

Garden Maintenance

The garden is already established but there is still much to be done! Come learn the basics of caring for tools, making garden plans, and effective year round garden maintenance.

Hands On Harvesting

It's that time of year that all foodies dream about– harvest! We'll talk about getting the best flavor, texture, and nutrition out of our veggies by harvesting them at the right time.

Sowing Cover Crops

Cover cropping is a great organic technique that protects garden beds from invasive weeds and returns nutrients to the soil. Learn about choosing and sowing appropriate cover crops for the season.

Salad Gardening

If you love your leafy greens then now is your chance to discover how easy it is to grow salad greens year round using succession sowing and season extension techniques.

Seed Saving

Saving seed is an often overlooked but extremely advantageous gardening practice. We'll discuss techniques for choosing, harvesting, and storing your favorite seeds from your favorite veggies.

Bed Preparation and Putting the Garden to Bed

Help us mulch garden beds with organic materials that will both build the soil and prevent weeds from taking over.
