

1ST ANNUAL ORGANIC CRANBERRY MEETING

Salt Hotel - Ilwaco, Washington

Feb 9th & 10th 2016

Hosted by Oregon Tilth, Starvation Alley Farms and WSDA Organic Program

Please join us on the coast to explore the opportunities and challenges in the organic cranberry industry. Plan to discuss organic best practices with industry experts, hear about existing and current research, and visit local farms. Additional content will include organic certification, record keeping, grower presentations and an update on the state of the organic cranberry market. This meeting is designed to be fruitful for certified organic growers and those considering transitioning to organic.

Details and Cost

There is an optional dinner Thursday night for those arriving on the 9th. Tickets are $25 per person and include breakfast, lunch and dinner for Friday. Sessions will begin on Friday the 10th, at 10am.

Registration

Register online by January 31st, 2017 at <http://pnworganiccranberry.bpt.me/>

Lodging

Optional. Discounted rooms available at the cozy, riverfront Salt Hotel in Ilwaco. Call Laila at (360) 642-7258 to book. $70 first night, add second night for $50.

Event Contacts:

Jessika Tantisook, Starvation Alley Farms
jessika@starvationalley.com // 503-395-4030

Drew Katz, Oregon Tilth
drew@tilth.org // 541-740-6747

